$ _____ (for marketing purposes only)

Our returning vendor deadline to turn in applications and agreements must be received by March 15th, 2022, by the Paducah Parks & Recreation office at 1400 HC Mathis Drive, Paducah, KY 42001. We will continue to offer open enrollment for vendors ongoing throughout the season as we have space.

Paducah Farmers' Market 2022 Vendor Agreement

I have received and read a copy of the "2022 Paducah Farmers' Market Overview."
I have also been given the website address to access the "2020-2021 Kentucky Farmers' Market Manual" provided by the Kentucky Department of Agriculture (KDA). I also understand the Paducah Parks and Recreation office has a print copy I may reference during office hours.
As a vendor with the Paducah Farmers' Market, I understand and agree that I and anyone participating with me will abide by these guidelines.
I understand that if I/we fail to follow these guidelines, the Market Manager or the Paducah Parks & Recreation has the authority to prevent our participating in the Farmers' Market.

ALL CERTIFICATES REQUIRED

Please read the entire Vendor Handbook before filling this form!!
 Vendors will sell only produce grown, products created or services rendered by the vendors.
 Reselling is prohibited!
 Market produce harvested for sale shall not be further processed. No product offered at the Paducah HomeGrown Farmers Markets shall be purchased at an auction, wholesaler or retailer.
 The Market prohibits the selling of pets or any essential product not produced by the vendor.
 No live animals may be sold or given away.
 The Humane Society is exempt from this prohibition.
 The Market will authorize vendors offering atypical goods or services on a case-by-case basis.
 Market produce harvested for sale shall not be further processed. No purchased raw materials or commercially prepared products may be sold, unless significantly transformed through handcrafting to create original quality work by the vendor. No craft items made from kits, reproductions of artwork not created by the vendor, and commercially manufactured clothing, unless substantially altered and enhanced by the vendor will be allowed. The starting material must be significantly altered and enhanced by the vendor, and the finished product should artistically dominate any commercial components used in the product. Craft items that involve the consolidation of two or more commercial products without any artistic or creative input from the vendor do not qualify.
 Vendors selling baked goods and other food items should be familiar with the Paducah State Department of Health Food Safety Regulations for Farmers Markets.
